From Pastor Anita Beste

Every once in a while you'll hear me say, "We are a Centered Life church." That means we try to find ways to connect our Sunday life to our Monday life. It means we pay attention to how God is working through us as we put our gifts and passions to work out in the world. It means we name and claim all the different ways God has given us to do mission and ministry in the world.

One of the first steps was to begin to hear the word "ministry" as something done both 1) within the church community and 2) out in the wider world. That way, we begin to see our ushering, Sunday School teaching, or prayer shawl knitting as ministry, as well as our relationships, our volunteering, and our jobs, etc. as part of our individual and congregational ministry.

Thinking of ministry outside the walls of the church required a shift in some of our thinking, so we started there in our efforts. But in this column I want to circle back and also emphasize and celebrate the ministry we do within our church community.

As a way to do that, I picked just 3 (each fitting into the category of food and feasting) of the many ministries and ways of serving at Prince of Peace.

Food for Friends –

Did you know that every third Thursday of the month 10-15 of us prepare and serve the noon meal to 50-100 people at the Salvation Army on Payne avenue?

Meals on Wheels –

Did you know that 10-15 people from Prince of Peace deliver hot meals through Meals on Wheels at noon every third Monday?

Altar Guild –

Did you know that 10-15 people take turns carefully preparing the bread and pouring the wine every time we have communion?

Thank you for your ministry on behalf of Prince of Peace—to all who help serve Food for Friends, to all who deliver Meals on Wheels, and to all who help prepare the bread and wine for the Holy Communion that we share. And a special thanks to the coordinators whose dedication make this ministry happen:

Food for Friends – Maria Larson (653-9108),

Meals on Wheels – Marie Hanson (631-3565),

Communion Prep – Dana Jacobson (484-9696).

For more information, to volunteer to help, or to offer your thanks, give them a call.

That's three ministries in just one area. There are so many more! "Thank you" to each of you in this church, for discovering where and when is the best way for you to do ministry among us!

Centered Life Ministries—within our congregation

Thank You to our Meals on Wheels Volunteers

Every third Monday throughout the year, our congregation provides volunteers to deliver approximately 120 meals to Roseville area residents. This service brings a personal contact plus a nutritious meal to the recipients.

We are one of 15 area congregations that participate in Meals on Wheels for Roseville. There are also corporations that provide volunteer drivers. There are 10 routes that are delivered 5 days a week. The recipients live in the Roseville School district. Some recipients pay for their meals while others do not based on their income.

We say thank you to our team of volunteers for this most valuable outreach service.

Regular volunteers are: Cathy Canfield, Tom Frantz, Jim Goepfert, Marie Hanson, Dick Jacobson, Genelle Lonnes, Jane Luger, Joyce Mallory, Carol & Paul Thompson, and Donna Ulbricht. Substitutes this past year - Margaret Canfield, Anne & Gus Haugan, Vera & Paul Ista, Peggy & Marvin Lee, Harris Mallory, Elly Osterhoudt, Deanna & Jerry Rowe, Sara Beth Sneen, Esther Tatley, and Cathy Yoon. Al Berg and Marie Hanson volunteer for this program by packing the meals before they are delivered.

If you would like to participate in either of these volunteer opportunities, please contact our coordinator, Marie Hanson at 651-631-3565 or you can contact the Meals on Wheels office directly at 651-604-3524.

Children and Family Ministry—Ginger Ryan

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

We celebrate the birth of the church as Pentecost arrives. I was thinking about the symbols we use with children to illustrate different seasons of the church year. During Advent we have a wreath, Christmas is usually represented by a nativity scene, Lent = the cross or crown of thorns, Easter = flowers or an empty tomb, but what about Pentecost? I suppose the Holy Spirit is the symbol. Doves, flames & wind quickly come to mind to represent the Spirit.

But why not confetti, streamers, balloons, noise makers, or party hats? We have been given a gift and it is the birth of the church year!!! I know of some families who start Christmas morning with a birthday cake for Jesus. Maybe they would also be inclined to have a birthday celebration for the church? The joy of having the Holy Spirit come to the disciples and for people to feel God's love is definitely reason to celebrate!

During this season of Pentecost, I challenge you to think about what gifts you have been given from the Spirit. How will you help your children determine what gifts they have been given? How will you use your gifts? How will you share your gifts with others?

Happy Celebrating, Ginger

P.S. Note the July workshops (see p.7). Learn how to discover your gifts.

Youth Ministry—Thoughts from Audrey

In the last couple of weeks, I have received several emails, letters, and calls about Prince of Peace's Youth. In the last couple of months, they have hosted the congregation at the 50's County Fair, prepared and led the Easter Sunrise Service, hosted the Easter Breakfast, been Prince of Peace Responders, and done youth work hours.

They care deeply about God's creation from the care of the earth to the people God created to enjoy and care for this world. These kids give of themselves generously to others, even folks they do not personally know. I am proud to be associated with these young people. Prince of Peace has reason to rejoice in the name they are making for this congregation in Roseville. They are spreading God's love throughout the neighborhood.

An e-mail we received:

Dear Pastor Rogness,
Yesterday morning (Easter) I had the privilege of worshipping with your congregation in Roseville. I was in the area attending a family gathering. We took a wrong turn Saturday night. While back tracking, I spotted Prince of Peace. Early Sunday morning, snuck out and joined your youth in worship. Please let them know that they did a fine job. The music and liturgy were uplifting and the congregation was most welcoming.
Yours truly, Tim Frakes,
ELCA Communication Services, Chicago

A letter we received:

Dear Pastor Rogness:
I am writing to you at this time to, first, commend you on the caliber of the young people in your congregation and second, to thank them so much for their kindnesses to me.

I have experienced their helpfulness in the past, through purchasing their work hours at your church auctions. However, recently I had a serious and unexpected need for help. Your Youth Minister, Audrey Fairchild-Ehm, knew of my need and asked if any of the kids in your youth group would be able to help out. Yesterday, six of them showed up to paint and work on construction—something that I desperately needed and wouldn't have been able to accomplish on my own—and they never asked for a thing in return! When they left my house at 7:30 PM, they were going somewhere to help another person in need move some furniture! —A true example of Christian charity, and impressive in ones so young.

Please accept this small donation to your youth ministry. I wish I could give more, and this amount doesn't even come close to the value of their work on my behalf. You and your congregation have a real gift in your young people.

Sincerely,

A Non-Member Roseville Neighbor

Hosting Chinese Students

The University of MN is home to the largest concentration of Chinese students in the United States. The Twin Cities has a unique opportunity to impact China through showing the love of Christ through our hospitality! The Hospitality Center for Chinese, located across from the St. Paul campus of the U of M, is looking for host families to provide temporary housing for incoming Chinese students and scholars upon their arrival to the US. The students arrive from mid –July through August. We provide temporary housing for up to a week while they find an apartment. This also involves transporting the student(s) to the U every day while they are with you. (Public bus transportation is an option.)

For those who can, we are confident that the rewards will far outweigh the sacrifices that you make. It is a rare opportunity to be involved in missions right on our own doorstep and to administer a cup of cold water to the ‘aliens and strangers’ among us. Please consider this opportunity and contact Luanne Wyssmann at 651-659-9740 or chinese@usfamily.net for further information.

Where are we with the Building A Spiritual House project?

- This spring the Council focused on bringing the work from the Mediation and Ad Hoc committees to completion.
- This summer the Council will shepherd pulling the Building Expansion committee back together to look at all “old” and “new” information regarding our building needs, architecture, and finances.
- This fall the Council intends to hold a series of 3 informational meetings during September and October to review the steps in the building project so far and to evaluate the information and decisions before us in determining how to proceed.

At that time we will better know the vision and consequences of our decision-making and be able to set a better timeline for any necessary congregational meetings and potential construction start date.
