11:00 potluck reception following

Gordon will be serving in a part-time position as Interim Pastor for Transition and Mission.

On Vitality: The Road to Prince of Peace

by Rev. Dr. Gordon Peterson

I greet you from the road to Prince of Peace and the second leg of my journey to serve as your Interim Pastor for Transition and Mission. I'm writing from Kansas City where I'm visiting our granddaughter, Elina, and her mom and dad, Kirstin and Thane. It is a welcome respite from two long days of driving from Southern California and 1550 miles worth of time with our 3-year-old Westie, Winston.

I enjoy travel and adventure. I appreciate being in interesting places, exploring new areas and meeting new friends. There is something about exploring new sites, new ideas and new understandings, that brings renewal and vitality. Travel and adventure, however, do require preparation.

Message from Barbara Burkhardt

The Toughest Job I Ever Loved

This month I said a final farewell to someone I have admired for a long time. It was amazing to hear Pastor Anita speak Pastor Andrew's final message to us. Thank you one last time for an amazing man.

What stood out from his memorial service was this-his life of service. And it really got me thinking about my own life of service. I have the pleasure of serving young children and their families as an early childhood educator. Currently I teach for Children's Home Society and Family Services at AGAPE High School, an alternative St. Paul public school for teen mothers. Remember that saying, "the toughest job you'll ever love?" That pretty much sums up my experience with these young ladies and their children. I am constantly amazed. What a blessing it has been to be in ministry with these families, colleagues and Children's Home Society. It has brought me complete job satisfaction.

So now my job is ending. My colleagues and I talk about how once you have taught in an environment such as AGAPE it is very hard to transition to a more "traditional" early childhood education setting. A life of service will not make me rich by earthly standards I suppose, but I feel abundantly blessed to nurture those a little farther back than the rest, yet just as lovely and with as much potential. I guess I have always loved the underdog.

There is so much beauty there.

Message from Pastor Anita Beste

My twins were three weeks old and Steve and I were finally adjusting – as much as could be expected – to the rhythm of this new life we had with two little babies and a 3-yr old. Then I got a call from my brother in Nebraska saying my dad died suddenly from a heart attack. He was only 64; I was only 30. I was sad and angry and confused. How do I nurse my babies and fly across the country to attend a funeral? How do I delight in this gift of new life and at the same time grieve the death of my father? How do I “do death” and “do life” at the same time? It was a challenge. The babies affected my ability to grieve, and the grieving affected my ability to mother. I did the best I could – with the help of God and Steve and family and friends. And it was fine. Not perfect – but fine.

Life is like that sometimes. Our joys and our sorrows happen right next to each other and we find ourselves counting our blessings and facing our challenges at the same time. In your families, you probably have similar stories: one member of the family announces a pregnancy, another member announces a cancer diagnosis; one child gets engaged, the other child gets divorced; one dear friend finds a job, another dear friend loses a job.

Joy and Grief. Hope and Fear. Stability and Change. Loss and Gain. They are always weaving in and out of each other. And the Spirit of God attends us through it all.

With Pastor Andrew’s death, we may find ourselves with a similar mixture of emotions. How do we express our gratitude and our grief? How do we look to the past and honor Andrew’s legacy here at Prince of Peace and also look to the future and walk into it with new energy and ideas? How shall we joyfully welcome our new Interim Pastor and our new organist this month?

Many of us know personal grief from the loss of a loved one – a parent or grandparent, a child or spouse or dear friend. It is painful and we each go through it in our own ways. Now, we are experiencing together something called corporate grief – when a congregation as a whole grieves the loss of a significant person in their congregational life together – like a pastor. On the one hand, we have been grieving the loss of Andrew as an active pastor among us since his surgery in June of 2009. On the other hand, his death brings a new and final wave of grief – with many layers to it. Plus, Prince of Peace has had experience with this once before. Pastor Bragstad, the founding pastor, died suddenly in 1975, after 18 years of ministry here. Whether you were here in 1975 or not, it is part of our shared history as a congregation.

Good grieving is important for us right now. We feel this loss individually and corporately. Different people will feel the loss and express the loss in different ways and we must respect those differences. New grief sometimes stirs up old grief, giving one the (unlooked for!) opportunity to revisit and rework some of the old grief. You have permission to grieve – with all honesty. And you have

Thank you

*Just a simple message that brings the warmest thanks.
From The League of Women Voters of Roseville,

Thank you Prince of Peace family. I can scarcely find words to express my gratitude for your prayers, cards, calls and words of concern over my illness. Special thanks to the Prayer Shawl Knitting group. I use my shawl everyday during prayer time and feel a spirit of love. Thank you to Pastor Gary Olson for his visits. Please continue praying for me and Phyllis as my illness (Myelofibrosis), like the family battery rabbit, keeps on going. I truly thank God for my Prince of Peace family. God bless you all!

Dear members of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Thank you so much for your contribution to Southeast Asian Ministry. As you may know, SeAM is currently struggling to keep the Parish Nurse program without cutting off any of our other ministries. Your generous gift of $1,000 on June 30 as well as your contribution of $250 on July 1 will help us to provide more home visits. We rejoice in that ability!.....

Milt Warkentien - Music Coordinator

August should be an exciting month at Prince of Peace. Pastor Gordon Peterson is starting his interim position Sunday August 1 and Kenny Vigne is starting his organist position August 22. I'm eagerly awaiting their arrivals and I'm looking forward to working with both of them. I'm still in the process of finding musicians for the summer, but we have the service style scheduled, so here's the August schedule:

August 1 – Traditional

August 8 – Band Led – Music: Worship Team (Now and Then Quartet of Deb, Caryn, Roger and Jim)

August 15 – Traditional – Leah VandenBosch

August 22 – Traditional

August 29 – Traditional

Sept. 4 – Outdoor service at 10:00 South Side Aces
Call Milt to volunteer for special music.

As excited as I am to have Kenny starting, it is also sad because Cheryl won't be our keyboardist on a regular basis. (She's still our 1st call for a substitute.) Cheryl is great to work with and knows how to lead our congregation very well. This is the 2nd time we've been fortunate enough to have her as a long term substitute. I hope everyone takes the time to express their gratitude to her before she's done.

I believe the first verse of hymn 576 "We All Are One in Mission" states our time of transition well, "We all are one in mission; we all are one in call, our varied gifts united by Christ the Lord of all. A single great commission compels us from above to plan and work together that all may know Christ's love."

What a church we will be when we take our vast differences and talents and unite them in the call of spreading the love of Christ.

May God bless us all, Milty

New Organist, Kenneth Vigne

Kenny Vigne grew up in St. Paul, Minnesota, the land of Lakes and Lutherans, where he dreamed about being a concert pianist or a chemist. He first became interested in playing the organ as a Freshman at St. Olaf College and successfully auditioned into the Bachelor of Music degree program in organ after having played the instrument for three months. For the next three years, he studied with Dr. Catherine Rodland with some coaching from Dr. John Ferguson, and graduated with a Sacred Music degree in organ performance. Deciding that he was still too inexperienced with the instrument to professionally serve a church to his fullest capacity, he went to the University of Oklahoma to study improvisation with Dr. John Schwandt where he received his Masters Degree in Organ Performance in May, 2010.

Although he has performed several recitals and played as a soloist with the St. Olaf Orchestra, he feels called to be a church musician rather than a performer. In his free time, Kenny enjoys dancing, improvising, reading Bill Bryson, learning how to play the bongos and pennywhistle and composing silly pieces such as a prelude and fugue on the theme of "Winnie the Pooh." He currently lives in the Twin Cities with his wife, Emily, who is pursuing a Masters of Musicology degree from the University of Minnesota.

Join Us in Chancel Choir!

Tammy Wilkinson - Children's Ministry Coordinator

Safeguarding God's Children Preventing Child Sexual Abuse

Wednesday, August 11 from 6:00-9:00 p.m. & Saturday, September 18 from 9:00 a.m. – Noon

The care and safety of the children and youth at Prince of Peace are a priority to all of us. We will be implementing a program called Safeguarding God's Children. This is a program and policy that Prince of Peace will be adopting in all children/youth programs and activities to ensure safety and protection.

What is a Safeguarding God's Children session? This is a quality three hour seminar that will be led by Tammy Wilkinson (a certified Safeguarding God's Children trainer). The session will include the church's policies for working with children and youth, what is appropriate behavior, what our boundaries are, and the largest part of the seminar will involve watching two videos with discussion. In addition to the seminar, each participant will submit a background check.

Who needs to attend a Safeguarding God's Children session? Prince of Peace will require anyone who wishes to work with children and/or youth in the next year.

If you have plans on working with children and/or youth in the next year through Sunday School, Confirmation, or any other ministries, please plan to attend one of the above Safeguarding God's Children sessions. If you have any questions, please contact Tammy at tammy@princeofpeace.tc or 651-484-4144.

As our thoughts turn toward the fall and the beginning of the next Sunday School year, we're looking for parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, neighbors, etc. to volunteer in a variety of areas in Children's Ministries. Examples are: teachers, parent helpers, Children Ministry Committee members, Wednesday night leaders/helpers, and much more. Remember that the children are the future of the church and the education we give them in their early years will help set them on the right road for their life's journey. Please consider sharing your time and faith with our youngsters. Contact Tammy Wilkinson for more information at tammy@princeofpeace.tc or 651-484-4144

Audrey Fairchild-Ehm - Youth Minister

The last few weeks have been difficult weeks. Andrew's passing has given his departure from our midst a harsh reality. Andrew had a love of the BWCA. A dream I gave up years ago was taking a trip to the boundary waters. My knees would never survive a portage even if I could somehow manage to get into a canoe. How would I get out?

But leave it to Andrew, he managed to get me into the area of the BWCA. The first summer that Andrew and I were at Prince of Peace, Andrew arranged for us to do a Sr. High Trip to Gus and Anne Haugan's cabin. We did some work for Anne and Gus and he and Patti took the youth on in to the BWCA while John, Jason and I stayed at Gus and Anne's. I had heard others describe the BWCA as "God's Country." As I sat and 'took' in the view, I had no doubt that only God could have painted these pictures.

These same sights and sounds are some of the reasons, I love spending time at our cabin. Andrew offered young people the opportunity to experience the BWCA and whereas I am not able to offer that, I do have a cabin that I believe gives one an opportunity to step out of our regular 'city' view and experience a different perspective of God's creation.

Andrew and I would often share stories of our cabin projects and how great the 'cabin' experience is even if it is not the BWCA. Andrew had a yearning to introduce young people to 'God's Country.'

He used the BWCA to teach survival skills, to develop self-dependence, to increase our understanding of God and each other, and to build community.

This weekend I will be taking the Jr. High youth up to our cabin, to a piece of 'God's Country.' We will spend three days sharing our lives, learning new skills, teaching each other who we are and becoming God's community. In August, the Sr. High Youth will have a long weekend in 'God's Country.' The Jr. High Youth will have another opportunity to spend four days of confirmation camp in 'God's Country.'

I find our cabin a special place—a place where I experience God differently than at home in the midst of daily life. I am grateful that I can offer this place to others so that they might be able to experience God in a new or different way. Summer gives us the opportunity to have more intense experiences at places outside our normal lives. If you have a cabin enjoy! If you do not have a cabin, find a place that can become your 'God's Country' to implement the 3-R's—Relax, Relate, and Re-create.

As I envisioned my move from Southern California to Minnesota, I began by thinking about what I needed to pack for the journey. It is important to have the resources needed to make the trip. It was, also, important to map the route. Having a good map gives permission to take a side-trip without fear of getting lost in the process of exploration. Winston and I had a nice walk alongside a mountain lake when I left the main road.

Any traveler knows most excursions require the ability to make adjustments along the way. One should expect the unexpected. There could be a detour or a delay that requires patience. A traveler may even discover that the unexpected delay or detour requires stopping to ask someone for directions or advice.

What both the well-traveled and weary traveler understand about a journey is the importance of maintaining a sense of humor while discovering opportunities to celebrate along the way and to give God thanks when you reach your destination.

As I make my road trip to Minnesota and Prince of Peace, I'm looking forward to traveling with Pastor Anita, the staff, the leadership and with you. I look forward to sharing a ministry of transition and mission: packing, mapping, journeying and reaching the destination of God's preferred future for Prince of Peace Lutheran Church.

See you in August!

Erik Olson's Ordination at Prince of Peace!

Reception following

Erik invites you to worship with him at his Service of Ordination. Bishop David Zellmer for the South Dakota Synod Presiding. Rev. Dr. Stan Olson, Executive Director of Vocation and Education, Preaching.

Tanzania 2010 trip - June 22—July 3

The Tanzania Travelers recently returned from a visit to our companion congregation in Bomalang'ombe, Tanzania. The travelers included Lee and Sandi Poppe, Jim and Caryn Josephson, Lorna Breiter, Judy Carney, and three of our youth: Erin Miller, Maddie Weiler and Phil Dyauli.

This was a wonderful opportunity for us to strengthen the relationship with our brothers and sisters in Tanzania. During the 4 days and nights we spent in Bomalang'ombe, we saw many wonderful improvements. The gifts we brought were very much appreciated, and we received a number of special hand-made gifts in return.

The photos include the travelers by our bus before our ride from Dar es Salaam to Iringa, our youth with 18 of the 20 students we are sponsoring, and an example of God's magnificent creation at Ruaha.

You can check the Prince of Peace web site for a 'blog' (web diary) of the trip, including a final photo album, at <http://blogs.princeofpeace.tc/tanzania> and watch for additional opportunities to learn more!

School Supplies Collection

It's that time of year again. Even though we have summer weather, school will be starting in a few weeks. The Social Concerns Committee will collect school supplies Aug. 8, 15 and 22. There continue to be families who can not afford school supplies for their children. We were made more aware of this with our involvement with the immigrant family. This year Hsinku is in 7th grade at Roseville Middle School and Paw Re will continue at Edgerton. We will split supplies between these two schools.

Needed supplies: BACK PACKS, wide ruled notebooks, wide ruled paper, pens, pencils, broad tip markers, dry erase markers, glue sticks, glue, highlighters, colored pencils, composition notebooks, and of course cash. Mark on envelope or check "school supplies." The schools can then purchase for their needs.

Thank you in advance for your continued support of issues presented by our committee.

Audio Visual System for the Sanctuary

Thank you for the funds needed to complete the Audio Visual system in the sanctuary.

Thank you to Tom Rockne for building another desk for the sanctuary equipment. Thank you for sharing your woodworking talents with Prince of Peace. Tom also made the chancel furniture.

The system will be installed during August. If you would be interested in being an AV volunteer, please contact Carol Garbisch or Pastor Anita Beste.

If you have any questions about the project, please contact Damien Riehl, Bonita Eliason, Dan Neujahr or Carol Garbisch.

The Cross has arrived!

Wow! This is what everyone has said after seeing the cross set in the sanctuary - a beautifully sculpted piece by artist David Broussard.

This Texan artisan relates his work to a jeweler's artistic craftsmanship. What he does with steel is what a jeweler does with stones. The metal is polished and textured for a unique design. The beautiful colors are achieved using only the heat from a blow torch, a process that Broussard calls flame-painting. When the right amount of pressure and heat are applied; the beauty in the metal is revealed. When displayed, with the proper lighting, these crosses can be enjoyed for years to come.

I give thanks for you, the good people of this congregation, for being the community where we each come as we are – bringing all our joys and all our sorrows, bearing one another's burdens and nurturing one another's hopes. And I give thanks to God, for guiding us and sustaining us – even blessing us – through it all.

The Southside Aces

The Southside Aces perform traditional New Orleans jazz. The band first began as the brainchild of Clarinetist Tony Balluff and Sousaphone player Erik Jacobson. Their whispers and rumors materialized in Tony's foyer near Pillsbury and 27th in South Minneapolis, late August 2003.

Since their first gig on a flatbed truck in Apple Valley, they've played weddings, festivals, clubs— "music furnished for all occasions." The Aces self-produced and released two CDs: "All Aboard - " on Mardi Gras, 2005, and "Bucktown Bounce" in September of 2006. Their music garnered the declaration, "A true authentic New Orleans dance-hall style band" from the New Orleans Traditional Jazz Quarterly.

Pastor Andrew Rogness

Visitation for Pastor Andrew Rogness was held Monday, July 5, here at Prince of Peace.

The Memorial Service was Tuesday, July 6 at St. Anthony Park Lutheran, the church Andrew grew up in. Thank you to all who helped with hospitality for both services – and for all your prayers.

In keeping with Andrew’s wishes, the family would like memorials to go to Friends of the Boundary Waters or The Nature Conservancy. For your convenience, you may write a check to Prince of Peace and we will ask the family to direct your gifts.

Andrew had written some reflections to be read at his memorial service. There are copies in the narthex or there is a link to the reflections on the princeof-peace.tc website.

Stewardship 2010
